

Featured Speakers

Nancy E. Wight, MD, FAAP, IBCLC

is currently an attending Neonatologist at Children's Hospital and Mary Birch Hospital for Women in San Diego, California, and an Assistant Clinical Professor at UCSD Medical Center Department of Pediatrics in the Neonatal-Perinatal Division. She is Board Certified in Pediatrics with a sub-board of Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine, and is certified by the International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners. Her various professional society memberships include the International Lactation Consultant Association and La Leche League Physician Associate. Nancy has made multiple presentations on various aspects of breastfeeding.

Diane Wiessinger, MS, IBCLC

has been a La Leche League Leader since 1985 and a private practice lactation consultant since 1992. She writes and lectures frequently on the language we use when we talk about breastfeeding, the techniques mother and baby use to facilitate latch-on, and the importance of professional and social breastfeeding support systems. She produces a CD of breastfeeding handouts under her business name, "Common Sense Breastfeeding."
